In Loving Memory of José & Esperanza Davalos

Jose Davalos, founder of El Novillero Mexican Restaurant, affluent member in the Sacramento Mexican community and beloved family patriarch passed away August 26, 2009. He was reunited with his wife of 67 years, Esperanza "Hope" Davalos on December 10, 2016.

Mr. Davalos opened up several Mexican restaurants in Downtown Sacramento, serving comfort food to homesick Mexican laborers. He served huevos rancheros, chili verde and carnitas, which would prove to be his specialty. He owned the 924

Club, El Azteca Bar, the Log Cabin, and Metro Club, 524 Restaurant and Matador Club.

In 1970, he bought the hamburger stand next to the Matador Club and gave it to his newly graduated son, Joe Davalos Jr. At the age of 17, Joe opened up El Novillero Restaurant, meaning The Apprentice Bullfighter.

El Novillero Restaurant has been a Sacramento staple and will be celebrating 55 years on July 6, 2025.

Mr. and Mrs. Davalos are loved and missed by many. Jose is remembered for his strong will, dedicated work ethic and charming smile. Hope will be remembered for her dedication to family, kindness towards others, and her elegance, grace and style.
